EDY-

UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20436

January 4, 1983

Honorable William J. Casey
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

As you may be aware, the United States International Trade Commission conducts investigations concerning the economic conditions of competition of major industries in the United States. Most of our reports are in the public domain, derived from questionnaires and public testimony at hearings. When the Commission reaches a conclusion, the "interested parties" have access through protective order to the full record in any subsequent suit before the U.S. Court of International Trade and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

We would appreciate having regular access to your public economic and trade reports. From time to time, we have used parts of published CIA reports in our work and have found them extremely helpful.

If you have any questions regarding the Commission, I have designated Mr. Charles W. Ervin, Director of Operations, as our point of contact (telephone number 202 523-4463). Enclosed is a "Summary of Statutory Provisions Related to Import Relief" under which we operate.

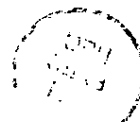

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Al Eckes".

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : Robert M. Gates
Deputy Director for Intelligence

SUBJECT : Request for Unclassified Agency Economic and Trade Reports by Alfred E. Eckes, Jr.,
Chairman, US International Trade Commission

1. Action Requested: Your signature on a reply to a letter from Chairman Eckes asking that the International Trade Commission have regular access to unclassified economic and trade reports.

2. Background: On 4 January Chairman Eckes requested Agency assistance in providing material, which would be in the public domain, concerning competitive conditions for major industries in the United States. He indicated that the ITC has used parts of public Agency reports in the past and found them extremely helpful.

Dear Mr. Eckes:

I am aware of the importance of the Commission's work in ensuring that US trade practice laws are implemented fully and effectively, and I am pleased to know that unclassified CIA economic reports have been useful to you in the past.

The Agency currently publishes only a limited number of unclassified economic and trade reports, but we will be happy to make them available to you. The following items are published on a regular basis, and I believe the Commission receives copies of most of them.

- Economic & Energy Indicators (biweekly)
- International Energy Statistical Review (monthly)
- China: International Trade (quarterly and annual statistical supplement)
- Handbook of Economic Statistics (annually)

As you probably know, we publish numerous studies on the Communist economies through the Joint Economic Committee of the Congress. Occasionally we also release selected economic studies directly to the public. You may find helpful a study to be published soon by the Department of Commerce on international differences in the cost of financial capital. It grew out of an interagency study under the auspices of the Cabinet Council on Commerce and Trade.

I am enclosing the most recent listing of the Agency's unclassified reports. It will be updated this spring. but if you have questions about any of the reports listed, please have Mr. Ervin call [redacted] Chief, Information Management Center on telephone number [redacted]
